High Speed Hijinx

Drivers, Start Your Engines! The ISOC Snocross Series made its debut at Huset's Speedway in Sioux Falls, SD. Teams and fans were greeted with warm weather and a race track featuring plenty of natural snow. It was clear this would surely be an eventful weekend!

Francis Pelletier was looking to keep his momentum rolling from the previous race weekend, but the script said otherwise. After getting a great start in the Friday Pro Final, Frank was greeted with some contact. With his sled worse for wear, he finished the race in P8. Saturday night would unfortunately be a similar story. After the toll of the bumping and banging in the Pro Final, Frank would have to settle for P9. Although being stricken with bad luck, 220 sits 8 points out of the top 5 in the Pro Championship.

A story we know well continued this weekend for Jordan Lebel. With solid qualifiers on Friday, Jordan grabbed the holeshot and walked away to take the win in the Pro Lite Final! Saturday would be a bit tougher, 511 had the last pick on the front row and had to work to get to the front in the Pro Lite main event. Ultimately, Lebel would complete the weekend sweep and secure his 10th straight win!

Naeli Lebel keeps on being predictably consistent. Both Friday and Saturday Naeli had tight heat races with favorable gate picks in the Pro Women's Finals. In both of her Finals, 518 recorded Fifth place finishes! Naeli will go into next weekend sitting in 5th place in the Women's Championship.

Dylan Lebel had a tough start to the weekend. On Friday, D-Man had a tough crash in his Jr. 14-15 Final. He finished the race, but it had set the tone for his Sport Lite effort. As a new day dawned, The Weapon got his vengeance winning the Jr. 14-15 Final, and is the current points leader! In the Saturday Sport Lite Final, 522 had a wreck, taking him out of podium contention. Dylan sits in 6th in the Pro Lite Championship.

The Crew has a tight turnaround and heads to ERX this weekend for Rounds 11 and 12. The Pro Class will feature a "Triple Crown" format which will surely shake things up in the Pro Points saga. Thank you to all our Sponsors and Fans for their support!
